

UGANDA TIMES

Your Weekly Digest of Uganda's News

EMPOWERING WOMEN IN STEM: UGANDA'S RISING TECH LEADERS

A new generation of women is breaking barriers in Uganda's STEM fields.

Across Uganda, women are taking the lead in STEM, thanks to initiatives like Women in Technology Uganda (WITU). These programs are equipping women with the skills and mentorship to excel in tech, engineering, and innovation. Read more on page 2.

Health Update: Tackling Malaria in Uganda

With recent advancements in vaccination programs and community outreach initiatives, health officials are working tirelessly to reduce infection rates. We will explore how local communities are mobilizing to raise awareness about prevention methods and the importance of timely treatment, ultimately striving for a malaria-free Uganda. page 5

Agriculture Innovation: Sustainable Farming Practices

Success stories of farmers who are using eco-friendly methods to increase crop yields and promote biodiversity. Readers will discover how these practices not only enhance food security but also contribute to environmental conservation, showcasing the vital role of agriculture in Uganda's economy. page 7

Cultural Spotlight: Celebrating Ugandan Art and Music

We celebrate the rich artistic heritage of Uganda by previewing upcoming events, exhibitions, and festivals, interviews with local artists and musicians who are redefining Uganda's cultural landscape. Discover how they express their creativity and engage with their communities through art, music, and performance. page 8

TODAY'S SPOTLIGHT

Barbara Birungi Mutabazi

We highlight Barbara Birungi Mutabazi, a visionary leader committed to empowering youth, girls, and women in the digital economy. As the Co-Founder and Director of Hive Colab, Uganda's leading business accelerator, and the Founder of Women in Technology Uganda (WITU), Barbara fosters entrepreneurship and promotes AI adoption.